Zach Hautala, ICECA, updated the board on the Crystal Falls Housing Development and upcoming Iron County Visitor's guide.

Craig Richardson, WICKWIRE, reported that Phase II of the Kunchynski Lot has been completed. The next step is to discuss financing of the new DPW building. Scott Tarsi and Doug Bruster will meet at Polich, Tousignant office to review financing plans for the new building.

Scott Tarsi, Supervisor's report: Doug Bruster attended the West Iron County Sewer Authority meeting. The Windsor Center's meeting was moved to next week. Wisconsin Electric is installing a tower at Paint Lake. MEDCO was scheduled to inspect the water tank on 8/16/23. Dive crew was cancelled, waiting for Duff Ahlberg. Board of Review was held on Monday, December 11th lasting two hours. Board of Review Members Don Wolf, Mark Wiegand, Roger Millis will need to attend training to renew their certification. Copy of a complaint from EGLE (original sent to owner) was received regarding 314 Gibbs City Road. Garage was demolished with no evidence of burial; structure was not inspected prior to demolition. Rockford Maps is publishing new plat books. Ron Simmons will need the new 2024 plat book with one for the office.

The treasurer report was provided and no questions for the month of November.

Ryker Johnson was present and reported on four leaks and four hydrants (3 were leaking). Plow was leaking fluid, seals were installed. Borrowed a wrench from Bates Township for the fire hydrant work. Board suggested that we should have our own wrench and to requisition one. Ryker will get a price and make a request.

Ron Simmons was not present.

Dennis Tousignant reported that the final paperwork is ready for the Kunchynski land purchase. Gary Pisoni will make an appointment with Mike Kunchynski to sign the document with Dennis being present to notarize the signature.
